

'Pitch your PhD', 1-2 and 4 June 2021

Day 1- June 1

12:15 - 13:15 Engaging PhDs: Pitch de PhD

12:15-12:20	Introductions by Egoitz Pomares
12:20-12:40	Presentation on 'how to present your research to different audiences' (by Sally-Anne Barnes & Egoitz Pomares) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identification of different audiences (academic, policy makers, stakeholders in your field, practitioners, other students, research participants) - Purpose of presenting research (dissemination to participants to inform practice, dissemination to promote work, to elicit feedback, to get more/new funding) - Need to consider (content, language, terminology/jargon, visuals, length, etc.)
12:40-12:45	Questions
12:45-12:55	Presentation 1: "Information and Communication Technologies (ICT) and Work-Life Balance (WLB) before and post Covid-19" by Wafaa Elmezraoui
12:55-13:05	Presentation 2: "The relationship between computer use and job satisfaction: The mediating role of job tasks and task discretion" by Carla Hornberg.
13:05-13:15	Student questions on presentation 1 and 2 Close session with details of session on 02/06/21

Day 2- June 2

12:15 - 13:15 Engaging PhDs: Pitch de PhD Egoitz Pomares Sally-Anne Barnes

12:15-12:20	Introductions, review of session on 01/06/21 by Sally-Anne Barnes
12:20-12:30	Presentation 3: "Entrepreneurial Ecosystems in Europe by Mirella Schrijvers"
12:30-12:40	Presentation 4: "Consultants in the IT industry: The analysis of job quality under the conditions of digitisation. The case of Polish SAP consultants" by Elżbieta Prucnal-Tumasz
12:40-12:50	Presentation 5: "The Digital Industrial Cluster as a New Model for Economic Development in a Post-Pandemic World" by Rudy Fernández Escobedo
12:50-13:00	Student questions on presentation 3, 4 and 5
13:00-13:15	Questions for students: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What has worked well in the presentations you have heard? - What key learning have you taken away? - What have you learnt about the research being undertaken by upcoming researchers in the field of workplaces transformation through digitalisation?

Day 4- June 4

11:30 - 12:15 Engaging PhDs: Pitch de PhD

11:30-12:15	Presentation to: Reflect on student topics, 'Where are the next generation of researchers is going'. Most interesting presentations will have the floor providing the opportunity to d Instead of having a winner – the session will focus in a selection of presentations providing an scenario to deepen their research
-------------	--